

NextGen Learning Pathway

A starter path for preparing younger family members before asking them to choose roles.

Use this worksheet as a preparation tool before a family meeting, advisory conversation, or governance review.

Reflection prompts

- 01 Introduce the family story, ownership structure, and values before business roles.
- 02 Create learning sessions on finance, governance, strategy, and responsible ownership.
- 03 Define how younger members can ask questions without pressure to join the company.
- 04 Separate exposure, education, internships, employment, and ownership participation.
- 05 Review readiness regularly through conversation rather than assumption.
